

Telemed Services

Telemedicine Services are now offered at Kingwood Psychiatry to provide our patients with an additional means of managing their healthcare.

Be sure and ask your provider if you are a candidate for Telemedicine!

What is Telemed?

Services offered through Telemed or Telehealth enable providers the ability to manage their patients through a secure, HIPAA compliant connection remotely. Providers utilizing this technology can manage their patients in real time with the ability to evaluate from a remote location.